

Breaking Rules

Competitors must provide their own boards! A small amount of boards will be available on a first come basis. Competitors must provide their own holders. Two attempts to break. Boards will be inspected at the ring. Judging is based on the number of times break is attempted, superiority of technique, number of targets successfully broken, and difficulty level.

Modified rules of the WTF will govern this competition. Excessive contact that results in abrasion or bleeding may be grounds for disqualification (Referee's discretion).
